OUR CONNTY TICKET .- We present this morning the ticket nominated by the Democratic County Convention on Saturday, and it is one worthy the support of the conservative voters of made a great flourish of trumpets before leaving Marion county. The candidates are all men Washington to join his army. His orders were identified with the industrial interests of the intended for effect at home, but unfortunately country-sound, conservative, Union loving citi his army got to hear of them, and they were made zens-honest, industrious men, who understand the excuse for every license. Order No. 5, as the wants of the country, and who are devoted every military man knew it would be, was conto its welfare. They are men who can be trust strued into a commission to plunder indiscrimi ed in public as in private life. They are all nately. An army with such license would soon known to the people of Marion county, and their become a rabble, and this Gen. Pope has at past is the best security that can be given that length discovered. He should have known it betheir future will be equally honest and upright. fore.

Invasion of Kentucky.

The following dispatches to Governor Morton from General's Boyle and Morgan, show that the long threatened rebel invasion of Kentucky has actually commenced.

Kirby Smith, with about 15,000 men, twentyfour pieces of artillery, and an adequate force of cavalry, is moving from East Tennessee to cut off the supplies of our men at Cumberland Gap and compel its evacuation; and advance forces of his command have already taken possession of Somerset and Monticello. The former point threatens our communications seriously. LOUISVILLE, August 16 .- The intelligence received is unfavorable to-day. The rebels, I believe, are advancing, and I fear will cut off General Morgan's train and gain his rest. Lieut. Col. Hogeland, of Col. Clift's 7th Tennesse regiment, telegraphs from Barboursville that the enemy, 2,500 strong, are in the vicinity of Clift's regiment, in Scott county, Tennessee. A dispatch from my spy at Someset says that two hundred rebel cavalry at Monticello near Mill Spring. are supposed to be an advance guard of the J. T. BOYLE.

Brigadier General Commanding.

LOUISVILLE, August 16 .- The rebels have entered the State at several points. Somerset is captured and in their possession. They are moving on Glasgow and threaten Bowling Green. Order the troops from Evansville here and send all you can. The men will receive their bounty afterwards. Any delay will be disastrous. J. T. BOYLE, Brig. Gen. Com.

CUMBERLAND GAP, August 16 .- If you have not already done so please send all troops ready for the field to Kentucky. The intelligence given me by my scouts satisfies me that Kirby Smith at the head of at least five brigades of infantry, four batteries at least of artillery and a corresponding force of cavalry is about to march through Big Creek Gap. Another force of equal size is in front. The plan is to cut my line of supplies, compel, if possible, the evacuation of the Gap, and then invade Kentucky in force. Not a moment is to be lost. G. W. MORGAN.

LOUISVILLE, Aug. 16 .- Another dispatch from Gen. Morgan says: Kirby Smith is marching upon Barboursville in his rear with five brigades of infantry and a proper proportion of cavalry and artillery. Gen.

Morgan has retired part of his forces to Bar boursville to hold the place and ask for reinforce-Col. Bruce telegraphs me that Morgan is still in the vicinity of Gallatin, and had driven off the hands at work on the Tunnel, and broken the hand cars. Forrest and Stevens are expected to J. T. BOYLE, join him.
